I think this is a good idea. We have site specific travel money. Just put in a TA when you have the logistics lined up. Thanks.

Subject: Potential Helena meeting

Hi Andrea,

Rob is trying to arrange a meeting between EPA, Montana, and Glencore, the entity that owns the Columbia Falls facility (which currently could be listed on the NPL, but they are trying to explore all possible options). The meeting is to be held in Helena. Glencore's attorney is planning on attending. Can I go? I was going to try to convince Rob to do a Smurfit Site visit then as well. Let me know, otherwise I can participate by phone.

Thanks!
